DEANS MEET AT EIU

As a future action, the Council will establish a data base on continuing education programs in the state and develop a position paper on a variety of Illinois continuing education issues. The Council, which was formed in 1987 to help bring focus and direction to continuing education programming in the state of Illinois, meets twice a year.

Dr. William C. Hine, Dean of Eastern Illinois University's School of Adult and Continuing Education, hosted the meeting.
